Hain Daniels Group Gender Pay Gap Report 2017

Hain Daniels operates in the UK and Ireland. We are part of our global parent company - Hain Celestial. The Hain Daniels group is one of the UK's leading food companies with sales of £500m creating food and drink products with natural goodness at their core.

Our leading brands include Hartley's, Sun-Pat, New Covent Garden Soup Co., Linda McCartney's Meat Free (under licence) and Yorkshire Provender. We are also a large supplier of own brand products to our retail, wholesale and foodservice customers.

Our vision is to make it easier for everyone to lead a healthy, balanced lifestyle.

Our employees are critical to our success and we would not be able to achieve what we do without our fantastic team. It is important to us that our culture equally values the contribution that both women and men make to our business.

We reward our team based on performance and contribution and we work hard to ensure consistency, equality and responsibility in all our people decisions.

Overall, the gender pay gap in Hain Daniels is currently 8.6%, which is lower than the UK national average of 9.1%. The gap that does exist is not caused by women and men being paid differently for the same role, rather it is a result of more men than women holding more senior roles in the team.

We are not complacent, and are committed to closing the gap over the coming years whilst ensuring we continue to attract and develop the best talent for our business.
